SUMMARY REPORT

DS-ADC-2005: DENTAL MANAGEMENT OF MEDICALLY COMPROMISED PATIENTS

With advancement in technology & medical science there has also been an increase in the various diseases & disorders due to lifestyle changes, dietary changes, etc. Due to the increase in the aspect of dentistry, there is a need to know about the medical condition of patients because many dental procedures may cause stress to the patient and their proper management is required in case the patient's health status is not so good. Also, invasive dental procedures that involve implants, extractions or jaw surgeries also need proper dental as well medical management depending upon different conditions likewise there is a risk of bleeding that could be fatal in bleeding disorders, overdose of LA may precipitate the epileptic attack and many more. It is the duty of the dentist to have the knowledge of such conditions and he should know how to manage those patients in his or her dental operatory. To impart the knowledge among students, this add on course was conducted from 27-01-2021 to 30-01-2021
