Non-Teaching Staff: Mr. D. Naveen Kumar (Non-Teaching Staff - Male)

PROCEEDINGS:

1. Welcome Address

Dr. K. V. Ramana Reddy welcomed all members to the meeting and highlighted the importance of the Anti-Ragging Committee in ensuring a safe and friendly environment for students. He emphasized the purpose of the meeting: to organize an orientation lecture by CI Suraram for the students, focusing on the preventive measures against ragging and the legal consequences involved.

2. Introduction of New Members

The Chairperson introduced the new student and faculty representatives for the academic year and encouraged active participation from all committee members in anti-ragging activities.

3. Discussion on Orientation Lecture by CI Suraram

Objective: The committee discussed the details of organizing an orientation session for the first-year students, which will be conducted by CI Suraram. The lecture will focus on:

Raising awareness about the legal implications of ragging.

Informing students about the institution's zero-tolerance policy.

Sharing real-life case studies and the role of the police in handling ragging cases.

Logistics:

The session is proposed to be held on 15th October 2024 in the college auditorium at 10:00 AM.

Responsibilities for organizing the event were assigned as follows:

Dr. Parappa Sajjan and Dr. Mangala Sajjanar will coordinate with CI Suraram and finalize the content of the lecture.

Mr. D. Naveen Kumar will oversee the logistical arrangements, including seating and audiovisual equipment.

Student Representatives will assist in gathering students from various years to ensure attendance.

4. Media Coverage and Awareness Campaign

Mr. Narender Lakkaraju from the local media suggested leveraging media to spread awareness about anti-ragging measures. A press release summarizing the event and key takeaways from the lecture will be prepared by the media team.

The committee also decided to develop posters and pamphlets highlighting anti-ragging policies and penalties, to be distributed during the orientation and displayed across campus.

5. Feedback Mechanism

Dr. Sajida husna suggested creating an anonymous feedback system for students to report any instances of ragging. This was well received, and it was decided that a suggestion box would be placed at strategic locations on campus.

6. Conclusion and Next Steps

The Chairperson concluded the meeting by thanking all members for their participation. He urged everyone to actively contribute to the success of the orientation program and to ensure continuous monitoring and support to maintain a ragging-free environment on camp.

Action Items:

1. Coordination with CI Suraram: Dr. Parappa Sajjan, Dr. Mangala Sajjanar
2. Logistics: Mr. D. Naveen Kumar
3. Media Coordination: Mr. Narender Lakkaraju
4. Student Mobilization: Student Representatives
5. Feedback System Implementation: Dr. J. Visshishta

MINUTES OF MEETING

Date: 22-06-2019

AGENDA:

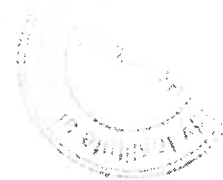

1. Discussion on planned events for the academic year (2019-2020).
2. Organization of online sensitization program for senior batch students.
3. Preparation of guidelines to follow during the COVID period.

The online meeting was convened on 22-06-2019 (Saturday) at 9:00 AM, with the Principal and all Committee members in attendance via online mode. Following a comprehensive discussion, the following resolutions were reached considering the prevailing circumstances:

- 1: Due to the ongoing uncertainty, the planning of events for the academic year was postponed.
- 2: It was decided to conduct online sensitization sessions for senior batch students, emphasizing positive interaction with juniors.
- 3: Until clear guidelines are established by the Government of India, DCL and Dr. KNRUHS, it was agreed to adhere to COVID protocols recommended by ICMR, along with guidelines prepared by Dr. NIRBAN and colleagues.

The meeting concluded with closing remarks from the Chairman of the anti-ragging committee.
