INTERNATIONAL STUDENT CELL

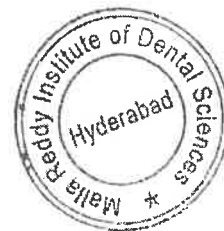

An International Student Cell is a specialized unit or department within an educational institution that is dedicated to supporting and addressing the needs of international students.

OBJECTIVES:

- The primary purpose of an International Student Cell is to provide comprehensive support services to international students.
- Facilitate cultural exchange and integration by organizing events, workshops, and activities that promote cross-cultural understanding, collaboration, and friendship among international and domestic students.
- Offers academic support services such as advising on course selection, study skills development, academic writing assistance, and access to tutoring or mentoring programs.

ROLES AND RESPONSIBILITIES:

1. Provide academic advising to help international students navigate course selection, credit transfers, and academic policies.
2. Assist international students with career development, job search strategies, resume building, interview preparation, and internship opportunities.
3. Advocate for the rights, interests, and concerns of international students within the institution.
4. Conduct outreach activities to engage prospective international students, answer inquiries, and provide information about studying abroad at the institution.
