

EXAMINATION CELL

An examination cell is indispensable for the effective functioning of an educational institution, ensuring that examinations are conducted smoothly and results are processed efficiently. By maintaining high standards of integrity, confidentiality, and accuracy, the examination cell upholds the academic credibility of the institution.

OBJECTIVES:

- Conduct examinations in a manner that is impartial and transparent to maintain academic integrity.
- Develop and implement a streamlined process for scheduling, conducting, and managing examinations to ensure efficiency and consistency.
- Safeguard examination materials, including question papers and answer scripts, to prevent unauthorized access and maintain the confidentiality of the examination process.

ROLE & RESPONSIBILITIES

1. The cell is responsible for preparing the examination timetable, coordinating with different departments, and scheduling exams.
2. It oversees the preparation, collection, and secure handling of question papers.
3. Ensures that exams are conducted in a fair and organized manner, addressing any issues that arise during the process.
4. Manages the compilation, evaluation, and declaration of results, ensuring accuracy and timely delivery.
5. Maintains comprehensive records of students' performances, examination schedules, and other relevant data.
