

FINANCE & PURCHASE COMMITTEE

A finance and purchase committee is typically a subcommittee within an organization, such as a company or institution, that is responsible for overseeing financial matters and procurement activities.

OBJECTIVES:

- Reviewing and approving budgets, financial statements, and financial policies to ensure transparency, accountability, and compliance with regulatory requirements.
- Evaluating and approving purchase requests, vendor contracts, and procurement strategies to optimize costs while maintaining quality standards.
- Ensuring that procurement processes and financial transactions adhere to legal and regulatory standards, as well as internal policies and procedures.
- Contributing to strategic financial planning, investment decisions, and resource allocation to support organizational growth and sustainability.
- Providing transparent and accurate financial information, reports, and updates to stakeholders, management, and governing bodies.

ROLES & RESPONSIBILITIES

1. Monitoring financial performance and ensuring adherence to financial policies and procedures.
2. Ensuring compliance with procurement policies, regulations, and ethical standards.
3. Identifying financial risks and implementing strategies to mitigate them.
4. Coordinating internal and external audits and implementing audit recommendations.
5. Developing and updating financial policies, procedures, and guidelines.
